The World Congress of Music Therapy is just around the corner. Read through some FAQs with last minute tips to help finalize your trip. We look forward to seeing you in Krems!

What should I attend?

The Congress organizers have made the “Final Programme” and more information available on their website so you can plan which sessions to attend: www.musictherapy2014.org

Be sure to check out the WFMT ASD roundtable, July 10, 4:30-6:30pm!

What do I wear?

We suggest wearing comfortable layers. Average July temperatures in Krems range from 15°C-26°C. Keep in mind this is a professional conference where you’ll be meeting many professionals in the field and student colleagues.

What can I see?

The WCMT blog (www.wcmt2014.wordpress.com) has an “Austrian Travel Experience” containing information on the WCMT Cultural Program and on exclusive sightseeing packages.

What do I pack?

- Travel itinerary & confirmations
- Passport/visa, if applicable
- Paper/pen or device for notes
- Camera
- Device chargers
- Plug adapters/electrical converters, if applicable
- Money for outings & souvenirs
- Medicines
- Toiletries
- Umbrella
- Entertainment for travel
- A ready-to-learn attitude!

What if I need help during WCMT?

60 MT students have been hired as buddies to help provide guidance and answer questions.
